

Maine Author Maureen Milliken

Wednesday, April 27th

6pm-8pm

At the Belgrade Public Library

Originally from Augusta and now living in Belgrade Lakes, Maureen is a third-generation newspaper editor and columnist. She has worked over thirty years in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Maine – including locally for Waterville and Augusta newspapers. Now she also claims the title of Maine author with her book, Cold Hard News. Come hear her talk about her love of Maine, her lifelong affection for the newspaper industry, and her fascination with the dark side of life – all featured in her debut novel.

Sponsored by the Sylvanne Labun Estate and the Belgrade Public Library