Wednesday, July 5th

6pm-8pm

At the Belgrade Public Library

Join Maine author Leonard Kalkwarf as he shares his experiences of visiting the 13 Presidential Libraries created under the auspices the National Archives and Records Administration of the Federal Government by Franklin D. Roosevelt. By the Presidential Act of Congress of 1978, Congress has been able to guarantee the safekeeping of all subsequent presidents' papers and have them conveniently located and readily accessible.

Books will be available for sale and light refreshments will be served. For more information, call (207) 495-3508.
