Join us as Roger Guay shares a game warden's journey from the woods of Maine to the swamps of New Orleans. His book, A Good Man with a Dog, explores Guay's life as he and his canine partners are exposed to increasingly terrible events, from tracking down hostile poachers to searching for victims of violent crimes, including a year-long search for the hidden graves of two babies buried by a Massachusetts cult. He witnessed firsthand FEMA's mismanagement of the post-Katrina cleanup efforts in New Orleans, an experience that left him scarred and disheartened while also witnessing the good still in people everywhere.

Books will be available for sale and light refreshments will be served. For more information, call (207) 495-3508.
